

The Owingsville Outlook.

VOL. XVII.

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1896.

NUMBER 52.

J. M. Brother is headquarters for wall paper.

Go to J. M. Brother for good and cheap wall paper.

There will be no services at Gilead Church next Sunday.

The booth privileges for the G.
 A. R., at Salt Lick, will be let on Saturday, July 25th.

Dr. E. P. Bender has arrived and can be found at the Owingsville House until July 11th, inclusive.

A pair of bagpipers divided interest with the well-drilling for a brief period last Thursday.

Born, July 1st, to Mr. and Mrs.
 Alfred Carter, west of town, a son, —Clarence Miller,—their first born.

Have Dr. Bender extract those bad teeth and root without pain.
 He guarantees no sickness or had after effects.

The well-drillers reached a depth of about 275 feet Tuesday. The depth Saturday night was 250 feet.
 On Monday morning there was 67 feet of water in it.

Dr. Bender must mean what he says or he would not make the broad statement: where he causes pain in any operation he makes no charge. Read his ad.

The U. B. F. picnic Saturday netted the order $61.18, which will be applied towards liquidating the indebtedness incurred in building the hall of the order.

JULY 1st.—The first of July is at hand, and I earnestly request that those indebted to me call and settle at once. I need the money.
 Mrs. D. S. ESTILL.

The meeting of the Mormon Elders at the Court-house Monday night was slightly attended. On Thursday the subject of discourse will be "Utah and Mormonism."

WITHERS-GOODPASTER.—Married, at the bride's residence, near Craig, Wednesday last week, F. Withers and Mrs. Patey Good-paster, B. H. Ross officiating. Congratulations are extended.

Rev. W. D. Welburn will preach next Sunday morning at Mt. Pleasant as usual, and will not be absent as published last week; also, will preach at Harper's school-house at 3 o'clock; Owingsville at night.

WILL BUILT.—The members of the Christian Church bought for $450 a part of the James Stone lot on Main street and will erect on it at once a nice cottage residence for the use of the pastor of the church.

CHARGED WITH RAPE.—Marshall Tom Sharp, of Sharpsburg, brought here Monday and lodged in jail Wm. Lee, colored, charged with attempted rape on Pearce Ralls, of color. His trial is set for today (Thursday).

SHARPSBURG FAIR.—The Sharps-burg Fair people are putting forth greater efforts this year to attract than formerly, and the Fair will be more popular and more numerous attended than for some years past.
 See large ad.

FISCAL COURT MEETING.—The Bath County Fiscal Court met here Friday and appropriated $1,250 per mile for 7 1/2 miles of turnpike from Salt Lick to intersect the Owingsville & Menifee turnpike near Carrington.

MISERABLY LOW PRICES.—Neri Sweetnam, of White Oak, was on the Cincinnati break selling tobacco last week. Five of his best hogheads averaged about 4 cents.
 He thinks his crop will average about 2 1/2 cents on the breaks.

SEXTON-RAY.—Married, Thursday, July 24, by Elder R. T. Zimmerman, Mr. Harvey B. Sexton, son of Martin Sexton, of Craig, and Miss Minnie L. Ray, daughter of Joseph Ray, of near Stepstone. The attendants were Burrill Ray and Miss Mary Carmichael. Good wishes are extended by THE OUTLOOK.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Bender comes to us highly recommended as a painless dentist and thorough workman in all the branches of his profession. He extracts, fills and crowns teeth without pain and makes the proposition if you are not satisfied he will make no charge.
 At Owingsville House, Monday, July 6th, remaining one week.

NEW FIRM.—I will continue the carriage business at Tabor's old stand and will paint and repair buggies and wagons, will also do horse-shoeing and country job work. I shall employ the best of workmen in all departments. The work will be guaranteed to give satisfaction and no one shall beat me in giving you the best of work at the lowest price.
 514 ROBERT COYLE.

WHITE JUVENILES' FOURTH.—The Irrepressibles, in the persons of Eugene A. Sheehan, Will Ruby Hazelrigg, George Curry Sheehan (clown), Edgar Denton, Marion McIntyre and Rella McIntyre, in paint and fancy costumes, celebrated the Fourth by a burlesque parade. The enterprise, comic dress and antics of the youthful paraders was quite a diverting feature of the "day we celebrate."

LOCAL TOBACCO SALES.—F. P.
 Hendrix, of Lower Flat Creek, brought the following crops of tobacco: on Indian Creek, George Stewart's at 6c, flyings for $1; John Stewart's (about 2,000 lbs.) at 4c; on East Fork, J. N. Hendrix's & Boyd Moxley's (4,110 lbs.) for $77.50; on Lower Flat Creek, Charley Young's (1,000 lbs.) at 4 1/2c with 100 lbs. thrown in.

 Fred Lynn bought John Dickie's tobacco, on Lower Flat Creek, at 5c.

BANK STOCK FOR SALE.—As executors of the estate of E. E. Pearce, deceased, we will offer at public sale on Monday, July 13th, 1896, (County Court day,) 50 shares of stock in the Owingsville Banking Company. Sale will take place in front of the Bank at about 11 o'clock a. m. Shares one hundred dollars each. June 24th, 1896.

THOS. S. ANDREWS, } Executors WILL S. IRVIN, }
 CHAS. C. PEARCE, }

EXPORT CATTLE SALES.—J. B.
 Embury, of Nicholasville, agent for Nelson Morris & Co., Chicago, bought of Clell Ewing 66 export cattle and 66 of Wm. Phelps, at 1c to be taken the first fifteen days in August; also, of John W. Hughes 40, English Anderson 40, at the same price.

Jo Turley, of Mt. Sterling, agent for Myers & Houseman, Baltimore, has contracted for several lots of export cattle to be taken the latter half of August, at 4c.

COLORADO FOLKS' FOURTH.—The people of Owingsville generally are proud of the enterprising way in which the colored people conducted their Fourth of July celebration.
 The managers covered themselves with glory, for the affair was admirably arranged and splendidly carried out, notwithstanding the lowering weather in the fore part of the day. The long procession and three bands of music were quite as interesting as anything seen here in a long time. The drill evolutions of the thirteen Knights of Friendship from Mt. Sterling called out the heartiest praise.
 They are excellently drilled and did themselves great credit.

THE FOURTH AT WILLEROY'S.— The rain Saturday morning prevented the usual large attendance at the Sunday-school celebration at Willero's Woods on the Fourth, although in the afternoon the attendance was quite large. On account of the dampness the usual parade was dispensed with.

The Cowan Cornet Band furnished delightful music for the occasion, which was interspersed with songs by the superintendents and pupils of the Sunday-schools present. Judge J. H. Herron delivered the address, which was listened to with marked attention. He was followed by Omond Byron, who, after a few appropriate remarks, gave place to Elder G. W.
 Porter, who then addressed the audience on the "Mission of the Sunday-school." At the conclusion of Elder Porter's address the people began to disperse, and soon all had left the grounds. These annual exercises are a source of much pleasure to the young people, and to the elder people as well.

LARGEST CONFEDERATE REUNION
YET.—Capt. W. P. Conner and Adjunct James M. Brother returned from the great Confederate reunion at Richmond, Va., last Friday.
 They were simply carried away with the many grand sights and agreeable impressions on the occasion. They can't say too much in praise of the elegant and lavish hospitality with which they were entertained. In fact, during their whole trip they feel that they were given all the attention possible and were better treated than could scarcely have been anticipated by the most sanguine at such a vast gathering of people. The reunion was a magnificent success in every respect and was the most largely attended of any of the several held in previous years.

THE SICK.—Mrs. W. W. Williams, of Forge Hill, has symptoms of malarial fever. James Whittington continues seriously ill with lung trouble.
 E. D. Anderson, of Wyoming, is suffering with a severe case of eczema. F. M. Calvert is a little improved. His physician hopes that he will be able by the last of the week to remove him to his sister's in Louisville, where he can be treated by some of the noted physicians.

Uncle Jeff Rice, of Flat Creek, is improving and will probably be out in a few days.
 Charles T. Horseman, of this town, is very low.

Tilford Coyle, of Washington Branch, shows no improvement.
 Leslie Snedegar is sick at the home of Wm. Lowrey, of Craig, with fever and tonsillitis.

TO ORGANIZE TOBACCO GROWERS.
 —An attempt to organize the tobacco growers of Kentucky into a State association for the purpose of restricting the acreage of tobacco, so as to cause tobacco to rise to a paying price, is being made. In accordance with this purpose the tobacco growers are requested to meet in their respective school districts on Saturday, July 11th, 1896, to organize a branch association. As the notice is short they may meet at any date soon thereafter. The idea is to secure the membership of each grower in the association and each district association to send members as delegates to the county-seat convention on Aug. 1st, at which will be selected a delegate to attend the State convention, Aug. 25th, to meet at the Enterprise Hotel, Louisville, Ky., and effect a State organization.

NEW CITIZENS.—Walter Harper, of this city, has purchased the grocery and saloon of Morton Harper, in Owingsville, and Mr. Sid Turner, who has been connected with A.
 W. Sutton, has gone there and taken charge of same. Mr. Turner expects to move there shortly with his wife. They will be greatly missed by our people, and we trust that the citizens of Owingsville will give them a hearty welcome.— Mt. Sterling Journal.

If correctly informed, Mrs. Sid Turner was the widow of Prof.
 Shaeffer, the noted musician, of Mt. Sterling, and once resided here, and had charge of the trimming department in Mrs. Joseph Anderson's millinery store. She was then Miss Chattie Hughes and is most pleasantly remembered by many of the people. All our citizens will be glad to welcome her and her husband to our town.

TOBACCO MARKET AND BATH TO-BACCO SALES IN LOUISVILLE.
 [Condensed from the Courier-Journal.] —June 30th.—The favorable reports of the growing crop make the market easier. Reports from the Kentucky district are that the crop promises to be one of the most uniformly good crops seen in many years.

BATH SALES.—1 hhd. old lugs at $6.30; 3, old trash, $3.90 to 2.
 July 1st.—Offerings very large, market easy and slightly drooping.
 Fred Lynn, of Bethel, on the breaks.

BATH SALES.—2 hhd. leaf at $7.70; 7, 2 lugs, $6.50, 5; 4, old lugs, $5.40 to 4.90; 1, trash, $3.70; 2, old trash, $3.25, 3.
 July 2d.—Offerings large, of poor quality, and prices weak on all grades. There is no present prospect of improvement. Rejections were heavy.

BATH SALES.—6 hhd. lugs at $6.90 to 6.65; 4, trash, $2.70 to 1.50.

July 3d.—Market weak and irregular again. Very unsatisfactory to shippers, and rejections are heavy. Common red Burley weakest, but all grades have been affected.

BATH SALES.—3 hhd. old trash at $3.05, 3, 1.15.
DEATH.—Eugene, the 18-month-old son of Allie Sorrell, of Lower Flat Creek, died of brain trouble on July 3d and was buried the following day at the Warner graveyard, near town, by the side of the child's mother, who died about four months ago.

Another star shines out from the brilliant sky, another gem in the Saviors' crown. It has been said that children are only the flowers and blossoms, the dew drops or play things of earth, yet "Our son is the Kingdom of Heaven." On the morning of July the third the pearly gates of Heaven were unlocked by unseen fingers and swung noiselessly ajar while the white-winged angels bore softly into the spirit land the soul of little Eugene Sorrell, son of Allen and Mary L.
 Sorrell, born December 14th, 1895, and for 17 months and 19 days God gave him to his parents, and then bade the angels fold him beneath their glittering wings and bring him to rest upon the Saviors' loving breast. The months were short and yet the brightness of his little face gained an unusual admiration for all who knew him. His sickness, which was disease of the brain, lasted nearly two weeks, and never was a child more tenderly cared for during his illness by his father and friends. His mother preceded him to the better land four short months, there to await her baby. Precious baby thou hast left us: the Savior called and thou art gone. We must wait until the glimmer of the day's last beam is down.

WM. H. BUSH'S DEATH.—The citizens of our town were greatly shocked on hearing yesterday morning as they were going to their places of business that W. H. Bush was dead, and much sorrow was expressed over the death of this general and popular man. Mr. Bush was on the streets as usual Wednesday and seemingly in the best of health. After going home and eating his supper he paid a social visit to his neighbor, Dr. B. F.
 Thompson, and remained there until about 9 o'clock when he went home and retired. About 11 o'clock he awakened his wife and asked her to get him a glass of water.
 When the water was handed him he attempted to drink, but could not swallow, and asked his wife to send across the street for Dr.
 Thompson, but before the doctor could get to him he expired. Heart failure was the cause of his death.
 Mr. Bush's family and friends had known for some time that he had an affection of the heart, but they little dreamed that it would carry him off so soon. He had had several spells with his heart, but not of sufficient severity to cause them to be alarmed. At the time of his death Mr. Bush was engaged in the coal business with his son, F. O. Bush, but gave most of his time to the buying of cattle, being the representative of Goldsmith, of New York City. He was a jolly, wholehearted, big-hearted man, who was liked by everybody.
 He loved to mingle with his friends and no one had more.

Mr. Bush leaves a wife and six children, Ed. G., of Independence, Mo.; James, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mary, Pointexter, Annie and Ben, of this city. He was sixty years old. The funeral arrangements have not been made on account of not knowing when his sons Edward and James will arrive, but the funeral will be at the Christian church and most probably at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.—Mt.
 Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.

Mr. Bush had many friends in this county, who are distressed to hear of his death.

THE 4TH AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE.—Reported especially for The Outlook by a Participant.]— The 4th dawned very inauspiciously for a gala day and out-door celebration. It rained from 5 o'clock until nearly ten a. m. Nevertheless the colored people began to arrive about 8 o'clock. The first under the wire were from Flemings-burg, followed by Sherburne, Sharpsburg, Bethel and Mt. Sterling. Proctor being the last.

The procession was formed at the U. B. F. Hall, on Water St., at 11 o'clock, the following being the order:—

The Owingsville Brass Band led by Prof. LaPrelle; London Lodge, No. 126, U. B. F., in charge of Deputy Master Wes. Allen, the Master, Robt. Trumbo, being on duty in the band; the Sharpsburg Band led by Geo. Fletcher, assisted by J. J. Stone, of Moorefield; the boys of the U. B. F. Juvenile department, commanded by Master Richard Dawson; a decorated wagon containing the girls of the Juvenile department in charge of Mrs. M. C. LaPrelle, the Mother Matron; a detachment of Symph-on Temple No. 98, of the female branch, in charge of Mrs. Minty Dawson; the Preston Band in wagon. In the rear was Napoleon Camp No. 19, Knights of Friendship, under command of Geo.
 Trumbo, a brother of Robt. Trumbo, of this town, whose drilling and marching in their splendid uniforms attracted considerable attention.

All these different branches make up the order known as the United Brothers of Friendship.
 The Camp is to the U. B. F. as the Knights Templar are to the Blue Lodge in Masonry. After parading the principal streets they went to the grounds, where a bountiful dinner was spread. The receipts at the gate were $75.00. Enough was taken in from other sources to make the total $109. Two hundred visitors paid at the gate. There were fully fifty guests, and nearly a hundred did not get to the grounds.

The U. B. F. is a great order among the colored people and lodges throughout the country take great interest in each other, as was evidenced by the brothers coming through the rain to assist this lodge here.

The joint Board of Directors of five men and five women, whose names appear on the bills, had charge of the affair and the proceeds are for the purpose of paying off the indebtedness on their property. They are a thorough-going body of men and women, and though they move quietly they keep a-going all the time.

If it had been a fair day no doubt a thousand people would have been on the ground. There were no disturbances of any kind, neither in the day nor night.

OWINGSVILLE, KY.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1 YEAR IN ADVANCE.

THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1896.

We have lost so much by unpaid announcements of candidates for political nominations and offices that we have made an invariable rule to require the cash in advance for all such announcements inserted in THE OUTLOOK.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge.

Judge B. F. Day, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge in the Twenty-first Judicial district, composed of the counties of Bath, Menifee, Montgomery and Rowan.

Judge C. W. Goodpaster, of Owingsville, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge in the Twenty-first Judicial district, composed of the counties of Bath, Menifee, Montgomery and Rowan.

M. S. Tyler, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge in this (the 21st) Judicial district.

For Jailer.

We are authorized to announce Samuel T. Jones, of White Oak, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Jailer of Bath county. Election, November, 1897.

John Jackson, of Preston, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Jailer of Bath Co.

Cabe S. Ratliff, of Bald Eagle, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Jailer of Bath county.

Hobart went to see McKinley last week and now Mack knows who Hobart is.

JO BLACKBURN is said by reliable authority to be working for the adoption of a platform consisting of only a declaration for 16 to 1 silver by the Chicago convention.

Gov. ALTGELD's leadership of the predominant silverite element of the National Democracy meets the hearty approval of Herr Johann Most, the German-American Anarchist.

THE U. S. TREASURY deficit for the past fiscal year was $26,832,244. The Wilson-Gorman tariff law would have produced a considerable surplus if the Supreme Court hadn't reversed its former decision and knocked out the Income Tax provision.

Gov. ALTGELD being a foreigner and ineligible for the Presidency will be courageous enough to advocate an amendment to the U. S. Constitution removing his disability of birth in that respect when he feels a little stronger in influence with the heterogeneous mass of American malcontents.

TILLMAN is one of the "big boys" at Chicago. He is still murmuring "16 to 1 or bust," but says "the other fellows are going to do the busting." Such another crowd of dangerous politicians never met since the days of the French Revolution. Tillman, Altgeld, Waite, Penneyer, Stewart and the like are what the darkey calls "a bad crowd."

J. H. CARAWAY wants to lease the Morgan Co. Messenger one year in order to take a good one-year's rest—the first since June, 1891. Morgan is one of the best counties in the mountains, and with the Messenger's prestige some aspiring man that has the journalistic impulse can have a power of editorial fan and work on the Messenger's tripod.

McKINLEY cares not who makes the silver dollars so he is allowed to make and collect the tariff taxes. Bland cares not who makes the tariff so he is allowed to make and distribute the silver dollar. Thus the people will probably be forced to accept 50 cents for a dollar's worth of labor or its product and to at once hand this half loaf over to the tax-gatherer, finally being without bread or money—Louisville Post.

GEN. LEW WALLACE, whose attack of literary "big head" has made him figuratively how-legged for some years past, is in a violent stew because the ex-Confederate people erected a monument to Jeff Davis at Richmond. Not all the prestige of the authorship of "Ben Hur" can license him to make a hide-bound political ass of himself.

Isn't he the Gen. Lew Wallace who, Gen. Grant said, got lost with in ten miles of the battle of Shiloh and couldn't find the way there when he was so badly needed.

THE latest up to Tuesday evening in regard to the National Democratic convention, in session at Chicago this week, is contained in the following:

The silver men can't agree on a candidate. Bland has a strong lead, with Boies second.

The National Committee, except one silver member, decided that there was no ground to contest the Michigan gold-instructed delegation. The Nebraska gold delegation was also favored by the Committee.

Senator David B. Hill was chosen by the National Committee for Temporary Chairman.

The Teller boom seems to have burst prematurely.

In all respects it is perhaps the most remarkable and largest attended political convention ever known.

In the convention Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, will be the silverite candidate against Hill for Temporary Chairman.

The gold men will not walk out in a body, but will see the play through. Whitney, Hill and others advise against a bolt.

The Ky. member on Resolutions is P. Wat Hardin; National Committee, Urey Woodson.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Forge Hill.

W. H. Williams is spending this week at the Olympian Springs.

Mrs. W. A. Atchison, of Wyoming, visited her sister, Mrs. J. A. Williams, Saturday and Sunday.

THE SICK.—"Aunt" Polly Goodpaster is worse. James Whittington is no better. Mrs. W. W. Williams is very ill.

THE SICK.—Mrs. Thomas Stephens, who got her leg broke, is no better. Mrs. D. H. Hendrix is improving slowly. Miss Nannie Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Mahala Anderson, is improving. While homeback riding one day last week Leslie Hendrix fell from his horse, inflicting some very painful and ugly wounds on his leg.

The Sunday-school celebration at Willey's Woods the 4th inst. was a thorough success. We had plenty to eat, plenty of good speakers, and a wash-tub full of good music furnished by the Cowan Cornet Band. The vocal music was first-class. Salt Lick, White Oak and Naylor deserve the blue ribbon. I think Bro. Caudill is an excellent vocal music teacher. May we all see many of them in the future and may God be with all Sunday-school workers till we meet again.
